Since 1842, The Citadel has molded individuals into leaders. The following qualities of leadership are the guiding principles for The Citadel in developing leaders to serve their families, their communities, their professions, and their country.

A leader

- believes in an optimistic view for the future.*
- motivates others to achieve.*
- demonstrates loyalty*
- respects the rights of others.*
- sets a good example.*
- pursues excellence in all endeavors.*
- treats others with concern and civility.*
- demonstrates the courage to act responsibly.*
- possesses uncompromising integrity.*
- is devoted to duty and honor.*

“Leadership is about integrity, trust and people. The Citadel, with its mission to prepare graduates to be principled leaders, is all about integrity, trust, and people. There is no question in my mind that, had I not attended The Citadel to learn these values, I would not have come close to achieving what success I have been fortunate to achieve.”
