

“The Citadel’s Honor Code lays the groundwork for all the other ideals that The Citadel seeks to instill in its graduates.”

*Daniel Clinebelle
Cadet Lieutenant Colonel
Chairman, Cadet Honor
Committee
Class of 2005*

SPIRIT OF THE CORPS

THE CITADEL

“Remember Now Thy Creator In The Days Of Thy Youth.” These hallowed words adorn the facade of Summerall Chapel. The opportunity to attend the wide variety of chapel services is embraced by many Cadets to strengthen the spiritual element of their Citadel education. Spiritual growth has allowed Cadets to develop moral fortitude, and helped to provide the foundation for The Citadel’s Honor Code which state “A Cadet does not lie, cheat, or steal, nor tolerate those who do.” The Honor Code is the moral backbone of the Corps of Cadets and has remained steadfast for over one hundred and fifty years.
