

Commission on Colleges
Southern Association of Colleges and Schools

COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATION

Name of Institution     The Citadel

Date of Submission     August 15, 2003

In order to be accredited by the Commission on Colleges, an institution is required to conduct a compliance audit prior to the filing of the Compliance Certification. The Compliance Certification, signed by the institution's chief executive officer and accreditation liaison, attests to compliance with the accreditation requirements of the Commission on Colleges (Core Requirements and Comprehensive Standards).

Signatures Attesting to Compliance

By signing below, we attest to the honest assessment of compliance and the complete and accurate disclosure of information regarding the compliance of The Citadel (name of institution) with the Core Requirements and Comprehensive Standards of the Commission on Colleges.

Accreditation Liaison

Name of Accreditation Liaison     Dr. Isaac S. Metts

Date     August 13, 2003

Chief Executive Officer

Name of Chief Executive Officer     MGEN John S. Grinalds, USMC, Retired

Signature

Date     August 13, 2003

Directions: For each of the Core Requirements and Comprehensive Standards listed below, the institution should check one and then add narrative in accordance with directions requested in the category description.

- Compliance      The institution meets the requirement and provides a persuasive argument in support of its determination, and a list of documents (or electronic access to the documents) demonstrating compliance.
- Partial Compliance      The institution meets some components of the requirement. For those components meeting the requirement, the institution provides a persuasive argument in support of compliance and a list of documents (or electronic access to the documents) demonstrating compliance. For those components not meeting the requirement, the institution provides the reason for checking non-compliance, a description of plans to comply, and a list of documents that will be used to demonstrate future compliance.
- Non-Compliance      The institution does not meet the requirement and provides the reason for checking non-compliance, a description of plans to comply, and a list of documents that will be used to demonstrate future compliance.

CORE REQUIREMENTS

1.	The institution has degree-granting authority from the appropriate government agency or agencies. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Compliance <input type="checkbox"/> Partial Compliance <input type="checkbox"/> Non-Compliance Narrative: See attachments in paper or electronic form.
2.	The institution has a governing board of at least five members that is the legal body with specific authority over the institution. The board is an active policy-making body for the institution and is ultimately responsible for ensuring that the financial resources of the institution are adequate to provide a sound educational program. The board is not controlled by a minority of board members or by organizations or interests separate from it. Neither the presiding officer of the board, nor the majority of other voting members of the board, have contractual, employment, or personal or familial financial interest in the institution. A military institution authorized and operated by the federal government to award degrees has a public board in which neither the presiding officer nor a majority of the other members are civilian employees of the military or active/retired military. The board has broad and significant influence upon the institution's programs and operations, plays an active role in policy-making, and ensures that the financial resources of the institution are used to provide a sound educational program. The board is not controlled by a minority of board members or by organizations or interests separate from the board except as specified by the authorizing legislation. 7. The institution a offers one or more degree programs based on at least 60 semester credit hours or the equivalent at the associate level; at least 120 semester credit hours or the equivalent at the baccalaureate level; or at least 30 semester credit hours or the equivalent at the post-baccalaureate, graduate, or professional level. The institution provides a written justification and rationale for program equivalency; b offers degree programs that embody a coherent course of study that is compatible with its stated purpose and is based upon fields of study appropriate to higher education; c offers a general education program at the collegiate level that is (1) a substantial component of each undergraduate degree, (2) ensures breadth of knowledge, and (3) is based on a coherent rationale. For degree completion in associate programs, the component constitutes a minimum of 15 semester hours or the equivalent; for baccalaureate programs, a minimum of 30 semester hours or the equivalent. These credit hours are to be drawn from and include at least one course from each of the following areas: humanities/fine arts; social/behavioral sciences; and natural science/mathematics. The courses do not narrowly focus on those skills, techniques, and procedures specific to a particular occupation or profession. The institution provides a written justification and rationale for course equivalency; d makes arrangements for some instruction to be provided by other accredited institutions or entities through contracts or consortia, where appropriate. The institution itself, however, provides instruction for all course work required for at least one degree program at each level at which it awards degrees, or provides an alternative approach to meeting this requirement. The alternative approach is approved by the Commission on Colleges. In all cases, the institution demonstrates that it controls all aspects of its educational program.
